NEW YORK (A. L.), 5; DETROIT, 1. Detroit base runners were thrown out at the plate in yesterday's game at American League Park. There were several cracks in the smooth surface of New York's fielding. but with men on bases the home team fielded very steadily and very speedily. The locals had a good deal to do, too, in fielding, which fact is attested by the large number of assists -twenty-three. They also were to the front with solid, timely hitting and won the game

The high quality of the defensive play of the New Yorks flashed forth in the first inning, also strategy. Barrett cracked a liner to left for three bases, and Elberfeld fumbled McIntyre's grounder, putting two men on bases with nobody out. Chesbro was not disturbed and struck Carr out. Crawford, a heavy batter, was passed along to first by thesbro, filling the bases. The infield stayed out for the double play chance, and though Greminger's grounder to Elberfeld was not easy to handle it was none the less capably handled. Chesbro gathered the ball in, shot it to Williams, and Williams shied it to tanzel for an opportune double play.

In the first two innings the New Yorks were subdued by hitting direct to fielders with men on bases. Carr made a couple of rattling plays on grounders by which men were forced at second. In the third Barrett, after making a two-bagger that bounced off Elberfeld's shins, ran into a ground hit that McIntyre sent to Conroy. Crawford lit on the ball for two bases in the fourth and moved up on Greminger's sacrifice. Lowe hit to Williams, who made a beautiful pick-up, threw out McGuire, and Crawford was run down. Lowe went to second and scored on O'Leary's single to right. nobody out. Chesbro was not

McGuire, and Crawford was run down. Lowe went to second and scored on O'Leary's single to right.

The New Yorks punctured Donovan's delivery in the fourth. Anderson and Ganzel singled, and Conroy doubled to right. Anderson came in on Conroy's contribution and as he did so upset Buelow, who was standing in the way waiting for the throw-in. The advent of the throw-in was while Buelow was sprawling over terra firms, and the ball shooting by him, Janzel ran home. Chesbro hit to left, and his effort convoyed Conroy to the plate.

The subjection of two Detroits was accomplished at the eleventh hour in the fifth inning. Barrett beat out an infield hit and kept on to second on Williams's hurried throw, which went wild. He took third on McIntyre's sacrifice. Carr hit to Elberfeld, and that nimble youth hurled the ball on a bee-line to McGuire. Carr tried to score on Crawford's single, but was caught fairly and squarely at the last stage of his precipitous journey, Keeler to Chesbro to McGuire.

Anderson's triple and Ganzel's single gave the New Yorks their fourth run, and Chesbro's triple and Keeler's fly gave them the fifth. The Detroits could not touch Chesbro after the fifth inning; and there was not much doing in the closing periods. In the eighth inning, however, Conroy threaded his way through the Detroit bats and plucked a high foul fly close to the visiting team's bench.

CHICAGO, May 17.—Brooklyn outbatted Chicago and also outfielded the Cubs today, but the luck was all with Selee's people. In the first inning, with two out and Wicker on base, Kling hit to the clubhouse for a clean home run. Jones then drew four balls and was batted in on hits by Evers and O'Neill. Brooklyn batted Dobbs around in the fourth on three clean hits, and tied the score in the sixth on a pass to Dillon, Babb's single, a wild throw by Evers and a single by Bergen. Pitched Ball. PITTSBURG, May 17 .- Pitcher Joe McGin nity of the New York team was painfully injured in to-day's game with Pittsburg. He was hit in the breast by a swiftly pitched ball in the fifth inning, and though he finished the game apparently stronger than ever, his breast pained him to an alarming degree this evening, and he remained degree this evening, and he remained in his room in the Monongahela House to nurse his injury. There were two men on bases when the pitch which laid McGinnity low was made. The ball struck him full in the breast, and he whirled and fell to the ground, writhing. He was rubbed and soaked with water, and after a delay of five minutes limped to the base.

If McGinnity is seriously hurt it will put the New York pitching staff in a bad way. Mathewson has been hit hard this season, and Ames is not in shape. The bulk of the work has fallen to McGinnity, who has been the team's chief help in the box, not having lost a game this season.

Augur Takes Malden Two-Year-Old Event but Toboggan Meets With an Accident at the Post-John J. Ryan's Reliable Picks Up Big Weight Successfully.

Two races were won in James R. Keene's colors by Careless and Augur at Morris Park yesterday, and a third might have resulted in the same way had not Toboggan out his lock at the post. When John A. Farrell's Champlain, the latter being scratched, owever, later on. Careless opened at 6 to 5 but there was such a stampede to play him that he was hammered down to 13 to 20. Robin Hood, on the other hand, went back from even money to 11 to 5. After the first furlong Redfern took Careless to the front, the St. Leonards gelding winning in a gallop by four lengths, in 1:41. He is a sour tempered colt, and the injury served to make him went at him, hammer and tongs, and the Kingston colt ran a game race under punishment, which was inflicted for a greater part tensia, who was off like a flash, and, leading from the beginning of the turn, won cleverly by two and a half lengths, in 1:28. RACING ON OTHER TRACKS. At Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 17.—Three promising American Derby candidates started in the third race at Worth to day. They were M. H. Tichenor's Flo Bob, for which he paid $13,000; S. C. Hildreth's Buriegh, starting for the first time in his career, and J. C. Milan & Co.'s Commodore. They finished in the order named. Flo. Bob won so easily and so impressively that he is now looked upon as a contender with Fred Cook's English Lad. Flo Bob was played from 5 to 2 down to 8 to 5, making him post favorite over Burleigh.

The handicap, at a mile and seventy yards, which was fourth on the card, developed a sensational struggle. Toscan, Huzzab and Gilfain all finished in a bunch in a flerce drive. The first named won by a head and Huzzah beat Gilfain only a nose.

JOHN J. RYAN WINS THOUSANDS ON HORTENSIA AND RELIABLE.

"Get-Rich-Quick" Man Begins Big Opera tions—Drake Denies a Rumor—The Claiming of Toscan Under Investigation-Lester Reiff Going to England.

John J. Ryan, the "get-rich-quick" man, made his first really big plunge of the season yesterday. Ryan regarded H. B. Duryea's Hortensia as a cinch for the fourth race, at seven furlongs, in spite of the fact that Tooggan, from the Keene stable, was an overhelming favorite. Hortensia opened at 3 to 1, and Ryan got busy immediately. He went down the line betting $500 and $1,000 at a clip until the Meddler filly dropped to 7 to 5. That Ryan is travelling under a lucky star goes without saying, as Toboggan met with an accident at the post and was not in-clined to get away with the others. Hor-tensia won therefore, and Ryan, according to those who said they knew what went into the ring, picked up $30,000 as easy as rolling off a log. It was hinted that Ryan won even on a log. It was ninted that Ryan won even more than this amount, but the exact figures could not be obtained.

The "get-rich-quick" man paid $6,800 recently for Reliable at the Whitney sale. He got a bargain and when the Watercress horse started in the last race his new owner proceeded to win him out three or four times over. At least one commission of $5,000 placed by Ryan on his horse was kept track of in the ring and there were several others, t was said. When Ryan gets into his stride, races in one day, but it was generally understood that he was requested by the powers that be to curtail his investments in future. This was one of the conditions named, it is said, when Ryan was reinstated by the Jockey Club, early this spring.

Jack McJinnis, who has been very lucky this year, struck a hard snag yesterday. He backed his horse Schoharie for hig money in the first race, but Gay Lothario came along and beat him by a narrow margin. in the last race that he unbelted on Collector Jessup to beat Beliable, but the Collector burned the goods up thoroughly by running

"There's another Chuctanunda!" said a trainer when Reliable came home on the bit.
"I should like to see him tackle Hurst Park and Hermis in a six furlong sprint with weight up. Hurst Park is a better sprinter than Voter, while Hermis can burn the track for that distance." Reliable, by the way, is one of the biggest horses in training, being more than seventeen hands. He towered over Collector Jessup and Athel in the stretch like a giant. He is slightly wind broken.

There was a rumor at the track that John A. Drake had scratched Ort Welles and Jocund from the Baychester because of a ruling of the Jockey Club stewards which substituted new conditions for races to be run to-morrow and Friday, with the idea of preventing the Drake stable from having practically walkovers in the original events. Mr. Drake was indignant when he heard the rumor and said that his horses had been withdrawn from the Baychester simply to avoid penalties for winning. He said that whatever action the stewards might take would always have his earnest approval. The stewards, by the way, are investigating the claiming of the horse Toscan out of a selling race at Bennings by James Blute, who is running the horse now on the Chicago racks. It is charged that Blute had no right to claim Toscan from the Columbia Stable because he had merely leased the horse Andrattus, who ran in the same race. If Blute, however, registered this lease with the Jockey Club, it is the opinion of horsemen that, under the rules, his claim was legitimate. If not, the stewards may order him to return Toscan to the Columbia Stable. In such an event it is a question whether the stable or the owners of the horses that ran second to Toscan in his winning races will receive the amount of money won by him. Following the example of the Brooklyn Jockey Club in establishing the Astoria Stakes, a sort of private sweepstakes originated by a number of well known owners at a banquet two years ago, the Coney Island Jockey Club has framed what is known as the Waldorf Stakes, for two-year-old colts, to carry 118 pounds, six furlongs, to attract similar subscribers. The added money will be $4,000, with $500 in plate, and the entries The betting commissioners in the grand stand operated under a new system yester-day. They did not mark the odds on the programmes of their patrons, according to he old custom, but merely received the commissions orally Lester Relff, the well known jockey, who was recently notified that the English Jockey Club had rescinded its order warning him off Newmarket, was at Morris Park yester-day. He said that he intended to sail for England in a few days and hoped to get a icense to ride there again. Reiff looks well and says he can ride at 120 pounds.

Headmaster and Terrible Terry, steeplechasers, have been matched to race for cup at Saratoga.

An authentic statement was made yesterday by a member of the Jockey Club to the effect that no attempt will be made to buy up the Aqueduct track. It was further sta ted that Aqueduct will receive the usual quota of racing dates next year and for many years to come unless the owners of the track decide to sell. this state general opinion among turfmen that with the opening of Belmont Park it will be necessary to schedule a local race meeting, possibly for the Jamaica track, during the Saratoga meeting in August unless some of the big tracks are willing to relinquish a few days each. It is almost a foregone conclusion that there will be racing next year at Morris Park, as the popularity of the track and Originally it was intended that only yachts from 30 to 50 feet on the water line should be allowed to start, but so much interest has been shown in the plan that the regatta committee has decided to include yachts of all classes. It is probable, too, that auxiliary boats will be allowed to compete in a class by themselves. The course for these races is to Marblehead Rock, and the yachts are to go near enough to Nantucket Shoals lightship to be reported. The distance is 325 miles.

POLO. Princeton Wins From Squadron A's Second

Princeton and Squadron A played their second game of polo yesterday at Van Cort-landt Park. In the first encounter on Sat-urday Princeton was defeated, but the collegians were the victors yesterday by the score of 5 goals to 2. Squadron A presented its second team against the 'varsity players, and general team weakness combined with feeble hitting contributed as much to the feeble hitting contributed as much to the troopers' defeat as the superior work shown by the Princeton lads. The college team was the same as that which lined up on Saturday with the exception of McCoy at back, in Forbe's place. He did excellent work. The Devereaux brothers excelled in all around play, making fast runs and riding off admirably. Capt. W. G. Devereaux made three goals and W. B. Devereaux, Jr., two, while for the Squadron Whitney and Goldsborough were the goal scorers. The game was shortened to four ten minute periods. The teams: Princeton—I. H. C. Yarrow; 2. W. B. HEMPSTEAD, May 17.—By a score of 9 to 5 goals the four of the Great Neck Polo Club cleverly beat the quartet of the Meadow Brook Hunt second this afternoon on the Hempstead plains in the second match for the Hempstead cups. The Meadow Brooks received a handicap of two goals, and such an agreesive and fast game did they play in the first period that they scored three times against the Great Neck team. However, in the next three periods the Great Neck players started in to play a fast team game, and kept this up so handily that the Meadow Brooks failed to score during the remainder of the game. The Great Neck team scored seven times in the three periods, and two in the first, making 9 in all.

The goals of Meadow Brook were made by Stevenson, who struck two, and Bird, one; Grace and Iselin each made a goal for Great Neck Grace made the two goals of the second period, and also the two in the third period and one in the last period, the others being made by Rawlins. LAWN TENNIS. Surprises in the Members' Tournament of the New York Club. Play in the New York Tennis Club tournsment was continued yesterday afternoon at 123d street and Manhattan avenue, with men scratch singles and men's handicap doubles scratch singles and men's handicap doubles as the attractions. A close two set win over Charles L. Cobb gave a piace in the semi-finals of the former event to H. W. Warner, and he will meet Wylie C. Grant, the indoor champion, this afternoon. The winner plays in the finals. Cobb made a strong bid for the match, taking four games on each set. His opponent proved the steadier man and by careful work captured the necessary points. Jimon E. Roberts furnished the surprise for the event by defeating Arthur T. Friedman after a hard fought three set match. The latter was a bit off in his play and although he took the opening set, his opponent tied the score at one all and then by a sharp sprint won out the third set. The play was close throughout with two of the sets scored at deuce. Roberts's fine placing and timely lobbing were the features. An easy win over W. H. Stickney gave a place in the semi-finals to Robert T. Bryan.

The men's handicap doubles furnished another surprise. In the one match played Louis Grant and José Chaves defeated Charles I.. Cobb and L. H. Hill in straight sets, 6—4, 6—4. The winners were on scratch with their opponents at minus ½ 15. Both scratch men were in top form, Grant lobbing cleverly and placing well along the side lines. Chaves placed with effect and the general team play of the pair was excellent. This win places Grant and Chaves in the semi-finals, where they will meet H. W. Warner and Theodore R. Pell.

PLANS OF AUTO TRIALS.

Committee Reconsidering Its Intention to Have Cup Cars Run in Private. Although for several days the topic uppermost with automobilists has been the "try again" trial tests of the cars entered for the international cup race, it remained uncertain last night whether the general run of automobilists will be admitted to the Empire

City track to-morrow to see the tests. It was the original intention of the committee in charge that the trials should be held strictly in private, and no change in this plan had been made last evening, although there were hopes that the committee would announce differently to-day.

There are more than 200 members of the New York Driving Club who are entitled to admission to the track at any time, and in view of this there has been considerable pressure brought to bear on the Automobile Club committee to have the members of that club also admitted because four cars on a run of 200 miles should furnish a rare ar ectade. Secretary Butler of the Automobile Club said that the final decision of the committee will be rendered to-day, which indicated that it has been reconsidering its plan to have the tests private.

IRVINGTON-MILLBURN RACE. Classic Event Will Be Run Again This Year

With New Features. Again the perennial Irvington-Millburn road race will bloom this year on the historic course in New Jersey, on May 30. The Bay course in New Jersey, on May 30. The Bay View Wheelmen of Newark, who took charge of the classic event last year, will again conduct it and the arrangements are now going forward with the aim of having it equal or exceed its former records as a great event. A new feature this year is the offering of two gold medals and a gold watch as the three time prizes, instead of bicycles. The first six position prizes will be bicycles, as usual. Another new feature is the offering of a banner for the club having the largest number of entries and of a silyer cup for the club having the most finishers. "Happy Days" Will Pitman will referee the race as of yore.

Columbia's Profitable Football.

T. Ludlow Chrystie, graduate manager of the Columbia University Football Associaof the Columbia University Football Association, yesterday handed in his annual report. According to the figures of this statement, Columbia had a successful season and wiped out all the previous debt of several years. Besides this nearly $4,000 was left over with which to begin the next season. The total receipts of the team were larger than ever before. The sum of $45,448.80 in all was taken in, of which Columbia's net receipts from home games were $18,047.17. Only one game, that with Hamilton, was a financial loss, and that to the extent of $171. Of the home games, the Yale-Columbia contest appears to have been the greatest attraction. It brought $9,259.90 to the local college. Columbia took away $5,069.62 as her share of the game with Pennsylvania and of the Amherst contest $2,025.20. The expenses of the season were heavy. In all $12,060.07 was paid out. Despite this, there was still left at the end of the season a profit of $7,407.15.
